His family: Mandi W., the mother of his younger children, Joey Knox age 6, and Khloe Isabella Amor, age 3, as well as Nicole W., the mother of his first born children, Jada Nicole, age 15 and Lyric Xavior, age 10, his nieces, Alicia and Carlie, nephews, Francisco, Kristopher Anthony, Adonis and Phoenix. Kristopher was a beautiful soul who would light up any room he walked into. He was a family man and devoted father to his amazing children. Kristopher was very passionate about his music, AKA DJ Knox. He was a versatile musician who shined every time the mic hit his hand. He enjoyed the out doors in all seasons especially the winter because he loved to get fresh and admire himself. His personality and energy drew you to him, he can effortlessly put a smile on anyone's face and make you laugh. Such a bright and intelligent man who enjoyed learning new skills he was a jack of all trades. Kris was a loving son who adored his mother, a big ol' mamma's boy. He looked up to and respected his father. The best brother any sister or younger brother could ask for even though you were the favorite Pinoy Boy. An uncle who loved his nieces and nephews as if they were his own. Kris was a loyal and genuine friend to those he surrounded himself with. Through out his life he cherished each and everyone of them. Everyone lived a special moment that we can recall sharing with Kris that we will forever cherish. The best part of it all is that we all knew Kris was an amazing son, brother, father, uncle and friend combined. He will always be watching over us and we will always keep him in our hearts. Fly high baby. We love you. “ I met Chris while needing a plumber and he was working at a plumbing company. Such a happy and beautiful young man. Had a smile like sunshine. I thought to myself man if I was 30 years younger LOL. I asked him if he knew anyone he could introduce me to with a loving and warm personality such as his self. Next I met his father and his family. I love them all. Thank you Christopher. May you rest peacefully in God's hands. You will be missed now and forever
