“ Mary, Jim and John, I am truly sorry to hear of your mother's passing. The following words from an anonymous poem/passage has helped me greatly with the loss of a loved one:

*Perhaps, They are
Not stars in the sky,
But rather openings
In Heaven where the Love of our Lost ones
Pours through
And Shines Down
To let us know they are happy.*

“ Alice, you will always be in our hearts and souls. You were like our other mother and we love you so much. We so enjoyed spending time with you, your oh-so-funny dry sense of humor, hearing your stories, laughing with you and and sharing meals and good times. You will be very missed, but yet always with us in spirit. Rest in peace Dear, Sweet Alice.

“ Mom,
To someone who has never met you, I would describe you as strong, independent, conservative, giving to others (remember how you were the neighborhood nurse for all?), with the strongest work ethic I have ever known. I will miss you, but I will not miss the suffering you have endured. That is over. You are free from it.
Your son,
John

*We were neighbors when Alice lived down the road from our family, and we knew Alice as a wonderful and caring nurse and friend. She gave our daughter her allergy Injections years ago, and was always there if anyone needed her. She and her husband Bob were a gift to us all.
To her family, you have our deepest sympathy and prayers.*
