“ It's funny how things happen I had an appointment to call Angie and forgot about it. I just happen to call ACT on Tuesday, the 29th and when Greg answered the phone I knew something wasn't right. My phone buddy/I want to play golf buddy will be missed. We always talked about meeting on the golf course and never did. I enjoyed talking to whenever we would see each other Act, Schnucks.

“ I did not know Angie personally, but knew of her from St. Matthews; know Terry very well, and know who her daughters are. She was a very pretty lady who always had a smile on her face when she came into church with her daughters. We never know the answer to "why" it was her time and maybe she was saved from living a disabling life; I know if it were her choice she would never want to leave her family. During this painful departure try to keep in mind that she is at peace although your hearts are broken and through time and prayer you will heal to remember the happy times. May God and His Holy Mother shine Their peaceful light upon this family. G

“ So shocked, and very sorry to hear of Angie's passing. Angie always had a smile on her face. She was always cordial, & when I asked for advice; Angie never judged, she listened, & gave her unbiased opinion. It is a great loss to all who loved her, admired her, and knew her. My condolences to her family, and friends.

Sincerely,
