“ Tam and Butch, no words can even begin to make this easier for you. Just know how much joy your mom brought to peoples lives. She was one of the most kind, loving, and caring person i knew. Know that she and your dad are together again. They are both watching over you guys with big smiles on their faces because they are very proud of the both of you. Both of you have done a great job caring for your mom these last few years. You parents are very lucky to have had kids that care so much. God bless.

“ Sorry for your loss. Anna Mae was the most funniest lady I knew. I have many memories that I think of often about her. She made me laugh sometimes until my face hurt. She is the sweetest mother you could possibly have had. She will be watching through the windows of heaven because you know in heaven she can see. She is happy and healthy in heaven.
