“ I met Barb in outpatient physical therapy. Her love and testimony of Our Heavenly Father and His Son Jesus Christ was so obvious! She and I prayed together many times. Barb was an inspiration and encouragement to me. I will miss her so. I have remembered her husband and family in prayer. -- Barbara McCarthy

“ Barb was a wonderful person with great spirit and loving heart. I know she was tired from fighting her battle and now she can sleep with the angels. Her spirit will live on in my heart.

“ Barb was a loving and devoted,Mother,wife,sister,and friend to many,she often spoke of her family with deep affection.I worked with barb for 3 years and she truly was a valued member of the team,dedicated to her patients and providing compassionate care.She came to the unit prepared and worked Industriosly.I often remember our laughs and conversations,she loved to laugh.I was lucky to have been one of the last people to work with her before her illness,then I found myself in a unsettling situation,visiting her right after her 1st surgery,we cried together and laughed,but then her pain became unbearable and she asked me to leave,I told the nurses to come in and take good care of her,before I left I gave her a teddy bear with crutches that had staff's signatures on it and she loved it and cried some more,her family told me she still has that bear and cherished it,well I cherish you BARB and may you find comfort in knowing that so many people care and are thinking of you and your family,with love and sympathy.
