“ You are lucky if you had a good neighbor, and totally blessed if you have a GREAT neighbor like I had with Barb and Tom. She always greeted with a smile and hugged my girls like they were her own. I never tired of hearing the stories of her grandchildren, and hoped that I would one day have stories to tell also. She adored Tom and always had lunch ready for him❤️ Heaven has definitely gained an angel.

Tom, I am so very sorry for your loss of Barb. She was a real sweetheart and it was obvious you and she had a real love for each other and your family.
Strange how August 18th I thought about it being your birthday, then seeing this and realizing the sad road you were traveling that day.
Truly sorry, live you dear friend!

“ My deepest sympathy to Tom, his children, and grandchildren. Barb was a very special woman and one I was privileged to know and love. She leaves a great legacy of service to God, her family and friends. Barb was the best example of positive optimism I have ever met. She loved everyone and the more she could serve, the happier she was! She will be greatly missed. May she rest in peace!
