“ Oh Betty, you fought hard for years. To say I will miss you is an understatement. I worked with you for 25 years (half of my life). Through the good times and bad at Comfort Inn I could always rely on you. We have split many of shifts over 25 years. To Jackie, Jeremy, Kim, Phyllis and the numerous grandkids, nieces and nephews, my sympathy is with you all. I know how much Betty loved her family because over the years I have heard many of stories of you all. Praying for comfort for you all in the coming days. RIP
