“ My earliest memories of Blair was back when I was as little as I can remember. We didn't go to the same school however we rode the same bus. Being deaf, I couldn't hear Blair, the driver would tell me he's calling out for me. He would reach his hand out towards me. I remember the joy in his face when he saw me walk towards him in the back of the bus. He had the sweetest smile that warmed my heart. We lost touch and it was years later when I found out he was at Beverly Farm, where my mom at the time worked and I later worked at. When I saw him again, he didn't recognize me at first but when he heard my childhood nickname he had this sweetness in his eyes and a smile came to his face. Whenever I passed him I was sure to say hi. He has and always has been one of the sweetest memories of my childhood. I treasure the times we have spent together. Heaven is an even more special place now you're there. Until we meet again. Love always, Denny

“ Our deepest condolences on Blair's passing. It took us by surprise when my son called and told me tonight. Blair always was so sweet when we came down. I know Jason will miss him very much. Eternal rest grant unto him O Lord and may perpetual light shine upon him.

“ We got to know Blair when MCARC was at Elm Street Presbyterian nearly 44 years ago. Our son, John was in the same class with Blair. Who could forget that wide, genuine smile of his. We are so sorry to hear of his passing. Vaya con Dios, mi amigo. The Dossetts

“ My heart hurts hearing this about my friend Blair. He meant so much to the football Explorers. Seeing him waiting for me after games was awesome. He was the most loyal fan. RIP
