“ I went to elementary school with Bradley. I remember him doing the Abbott and Costello who's on first skit and reciting the Declaration of Independence. He was a nice guy, always had a smile on his face. So sorry to hear of your loss.

“ I have only known Brad for a little over a year. He was my tenant and was a wonderful person. Every month Brad would call me to come down and pick up the rent. I always looked forward to talking to him every month. He was always fun to talk to, mostly about his work at the Alton Little Theater. He seemed to really enjoy being involved in the Alton Little Theater. Most of the time when I stopped by, I had my 12 and 14-year-old girls with me. They always enjoyed talking to him too. I will never forget Brad and think of the times we talked. I will miss him dearly.
