“ *Dear Jeff, and family,
Sending you all my deepest condolences, and prayers for comfort and peace. I will always remember Bryan as that playful and cute little boy when all of our kids were growing up.*

I am working tomorrow night until 9:00, so I will not be able to attend the visitation. Please know you are all in my heart and prayers.

“ I remember teaching Bryan in Sunday School. He was always laughing and smiling. As he helped do some remodeling on our home, we talked and he was so kind and sweet. I will always remember him fondly. I'm so sorry for your loss. I will keep you all in my prayers. May Jesus give you His peace and comfort all of you.--- your cousin, Debra
