“ It was with a heavy heart that I read of Calvin's passing recently. It was a great pleasure when he and four fellow shipmate's from the original Bluefish (SS-222) came to the Bluefish reunion in St Charles, MO in 2008. Those five guys were certainly a lively bunch, and would stay up well into the wee hours of the mornings to tell us stories about the war patrols during WWII, and answer the endless questions we had about their experiences. While we had some exciting times on the nuclear Bluefish, they were nothing compared what those guys went through.

Calvin had a great time during the reunion. No matter how late he stayed up entertaining us, he was always at the breakfast table first thing in the morning, looking totally refreshed and ready for another day. He was a wonderful man who enjoyed life to the fullest.

I still remember the looks of the faces of those five men when Admiral Kelso presented each one with a plaque made from the original wooden decking of the SS-222. Each one of them swelled with pride for that special gift, and most choked up a bit when they accepted their plaque. There were more than a few of us in the audience who also had a big lump in our throat as well. Those five guys were truly part of the aptly named "Greatest Generation", a distinction they fully earned.

Calvin, you have made your family, your shipmates, your Navy, and your Nation proud with your service. Farewell, my friend.

It was truly my humble privilege to attend Cal's celebration service. It honored a full life and an awesome faith walk. All the words and stories spoken and shared were genuine and heartfelt, especially the grandson's standing in unity. Thank you for your service & sacrifice to our country and be an amazing example to so many. Earl Meyers (U.S.S. Bluefish , SSN 675)

“ *My wife and I are very saddened by his passing. Thank you David for letting me know. It was a pleasure to know him even though it was just for a few years. We enjoyed every minute of his time with us at the reunions together. I know that he and Art Pietsch are setting around and telling stories. We will have a moment of silence for him next month at the Bluefish reunion. He won't ever be forgotten by any of us there that knew him. Give our love to Virginia and to the rest of your family. “ We will miss Cal. Being "neighbors" for 39 years and spending time with him at Brown St. gives many special memories. Talking to our son, Jonathan, the first thing he remembered was when Cal was burning a couch in the back and set the field on fire. He also remembers going to the woodshop a few times. We remember him with the hutch he made that sits in our bedrooms. We can't make the service due to work, but we will be praying for Ginny and the family. "Pastor Dave" and Joan Conrad
