“ Carl, I will miss you very much and my heart is broken that I could not see you one more time later this month when I was coming back home for Ashton's high school graduation. You and I had gotten very close over the last many years. You were a wonderful husband to my sister "Marika" and called her your "sweet heart" every time we spoke on the phone. A better human being I don't believe exists. I know you are waiting for your sweet heart to be together again. I love you always, Irene
