“ My heart goes out to Kris and Kelly during the loss of their dear mother Carol. She was so proud of you both, your spouses, and children. Carol and I worked together at Jefferson Smurfit Corp. Sales & Marketing 1990-96. We teamed up to open Montgomery, AL, box plant 9/20/91. That's when we bonded as friends discovering we both were hard workers. Every couple years, Carol and I had lunch. Last time I saw her was 5/27/11, the day of Rock Tenn (RT) acquisition at where else? Temping at Creve Coeur reception desk. Carol, Queen of Rodeo, now is riding her horse barrel racing in Heaven. May all good memories of your mom stay in your hearts forever. Sincerely, Carol Keller-Michaelis

“ Kelly,

I cannot think of Granny Green and not smile. She was witty and a good friend to my Mom. I know they are having a good time again.

Love you.

“ Dear Family of Carol Green, Our thoughts and prayers are with you all at this time of sorrow for you. We will keep you in our prayers. It's hard to handle, but remember she is now in God's arms. We were a neighbor, unfortunately not close friends but neighbors just the same.
