“ *My Life is but a weaving
between my Lord and me;
I cannot choose the colors
He worketh steadily.*

*Of times He weaveth sorrow
And I, in foolish pride,
Forget He sees the upper,
And I the under side.*

*Not till the loom is silent
And the shuttles cease to fly,
Shall God unroll the canvas
And explain the reason why.*

*The dark threads are as needful
In the Weaver's skillful hand,
As the threads of gold and silver
In the pattern He has planned.*

*He knows, He loves, He cares,
Nothing this truth can dim.
He gives His very best to those
Who leave the choice with Him.*

Your in our thoughts and prayers!

“ Chuck was one in a million....a man of true wisdom and intergrity. He counseled me in many tough situations and always remained positive in every interaction I ever had with him. He was a dedicated family man and an inspiration to myself and many others. Above all, he reminded me to laugh, enjoy life, and cherish those close to you. The wind is at your back, my friend. Rest well. We will meet again.

“ I am so sorry for your loss.

Chuck was a good man.

We went to high school together.

He always seemed so full of life.
