“ My father was a Christian in the truest sense of the word. He lead by example. His life was to serve the Lord in all aspects, which he did. He lived the Word. It warmed my heart to read the loving words written about him. He was and always will be so loved and respected.

Thank you for your prayers.

His journey is over and he is at peace. We wouldn't call him back, even if we could. God Bless You All.

Happy in the Lord, Arefa (Moxey) Lambert and the Moxey Family

“ I shall remember Charles as a fine Christian gentleman who was consistent in his demeanor and his social graces. His life truly speaks for itself in that he lived as he knew the best was yet to come. How good it is to see a saint go home to his reward just as Charles has now experienced. I am a better person for having known this man of God.
