“ Being the youngest daughter of Charlotte's I first want to say thank you to any one who have kept us in there prayers.. It has been 7 1/2 months since mom left us. Today feels just as raw as January 3rd did. I wake up every morning feeling she isn't really gone. It has not hit me, I still have her number in my phone. It will prolly stay there. I miss her every second of every day.. She will never know how much she was loved.. I lobe you momma always..

“ I share family with Charlotte through her daughter Melissa Story, our wonderful granddaughter Sara and our great grandchildren, Phillip, Conner and Ella Rose. I worked with Charlotte many years at Owens IL Glass and I'm sure that her family will feel her loss for years to come. I'm happy that she had the opportunity to spend time with all of the kids so they have those memories to share. She will surely be missed. May she rest in peace.
