“ Dear Yolanda and family, my deepest sympathy is with you all on the passing of Cliff. He was truly a wonderful friend to the Kennedy family, starting with his long-term friendship with my departed brothers Terry and George. I would often comment to him, humorously, that I knew he was a good man if he could stay friends with those two. But that's just what he was a good man and a truly dedicated friend. And as you know Yolanda, after Terry & George both passed, he stayed in touch with me and we would have good conversations where I would get a chance to talk to both of you. There was never a time when we talked that you, Cliff, and I didn't end the call without saying we loved each other. And, I believe that he has been reunited with all of his family loved ones that went before him and with his crazy buddies Terry & George!! Good bye Cliff, but I'll see you, my brothers, and other loved ones on the other side. With Love & Friendship, Donna Kennedy & Edith Kennedy-Price
