“ Aunt Mary Jane,

My deepest and dearest sympathies to you. I know that Uncle Craig was very happy in his all to short a time with you. It seems like just yesterday I met you all those years ago in Randolph, NJ. Thank you for making his life a little brighter in the years to follow. Uncle Craig will be missed be us all. But until the day we all get together again, we will be watching over you, as I'm sure he will be too. Dad and Aunt Karen, I am so sorry you had to lose your brother so soon. God speed Uncle Craig. Love, Scott
