“ Damien or Pookie as he was introduced to me was a great kid with a good heart. He lived at my house for a little while with his friend Travis and that's when I really got to know him. I'm sorry his life was cut so short. He still had so many dreams to do. I am sorry for the loss of his family and his friends. Especially his parents as I couldn't imagine the loss of a child. R.I.P. Dearest Damien. You will be greatly missed.

“ Pookie was one of my husbands closest and best friends. He would randomly check on him to make sure he was happy and well. In the few years that I knew him he had so many sweet and encouraging words to say. He always had a smile on his face and passion in his heart. I feel lucky to have known him and will do my best to help heal the hole left in my husbands soul with his parting. We will try very hard to live a full and passionate life with the advice and fire that pookie always shared with us. We will miss you terribly. Rest In Peace pookie.
