“ Dave and I met at work because he picked up my last name (Haselhorst from Calhoun County) from his dad.. Family was very important to him. He spoke highly of all of you. I want "the belt back" when I see him on the other side. Private joke between us. He was a great guy. Goodbye my friend. RIP David Kinder.

“ Judy and Lavern I'm so sorry for your loss - Please let me know if there is anything I can do to help you - Becky mcgowen David was such a sweet guy - he will be so missed

Becky McGowen - November 30, 2021 at 08:18 PM

“ I worked with Dave for many years. For many years he bought me a soda because the Cowboys would always beat the Raiders, lol. This year I owe him a soda, sure wish I could give it to him. RIP Dave you will be missed.

“ I worked with and knew Dave over 20 years. He knew how to make people smile when he entered a room. He loved his family so much he always bragged about his children. He always talked highly of his parents. The Olin brass family lost another great person! You will be forever in my heart Dave. RIP my sweet friend.
