“ Arty (David) was an incredibly sweet and protective young man. Though he may not have realized it, he touched and taught so many people. His love for the good in others and his amazing taste in music will forever be remembered. His smile lit up every room he entered, and his spirit was warm, inviting, and kind. I am thankful for the good times we shared. May he be remembered for each and every one of his best moments. I pray his beautiful soul is at peace.

“ David was a kind, gentle, and loving soul. David was generous with his love and protection for all that needed it. David had a heart for the least of them. If there's anything to be learned from David it is to love freely and generously. He'll always be in my heart as one of those people that God places around you to show that love is kind, and love is patient. David introduced me to music that I ordinarily wouldn't choose but enjoyed it very much. One of his favorite songs were, Love You, Miss You, Mean It. I certainly will miss him.

“ David was the sweetest, gentle, kind, soul. He had a way of knowing, that you were struggling and searched to find a way to make you smile or make it better . Usually humor! He was protective. He was generous. And I am deeply saddened his light was snuffed out when it was just starting to shine so bright!(again)
