“ I had no idea Dave had passed. He worked with and for me in the 1990's, at a couple computer companies. Was always one of my most trusted friends. I am so very sad to find this out. I had not heard from him in awhile, and could not reach him so, with fear and sadness in my heart, I searched for his obituary, hoping not to find it. Dave was a good man, a Christian man, who was compassionate and loving. Much of what I know about the field I work in I learned from Dave.

“ *Dear Mr. Westbrook:
You are in my thoughts and prayers as is David. I have a candle I am lighting in memory to David. As David's next door neighbor I only knew him for a few months. David was a kind and caring gentleman--and he always expressed his appreciation to me for the fantastic father he had. You have my sympathy.*
