“ Oh dear,
There are simply not enough words to say what we are feeling with your passing. You were the one who held the family together, always looked past ones wrong doing, always believed the good in people. You never met a stranger. After grandma passed you took on that role for me. And it was a big role to fill, you didn't bat an eye and accepted that title. Over the years i enjoyed bringing my kiddos to see you and visit. We will forever cherish all the memories we had with you. I knew everytime i was pregnant my most favorite gift would be your crotchet items. There was nothing quite like them. They were the most thoughtful gift i have ever received. Thank you for all of words of encouragement throughout school, your “love you hon” and your comments and snapchats. Thank you for always believing in me and always checking on me! Please give grandma a HUGE hug for me! I can only imagine the reunion you had. Until we meet again Grandma Deb, i hope you know just how loved you are, and how much you will be missed ❤️❤️ Love and miss you so much! Fly high, you have earned those beautiful angel wings 🙏 -

*Life will not be the same with out you Auntie.. You were always there for everyone you knew.. You made my childhood amazing.. The holidays at your house.. piling up in living room on pallets with several other cousins who were spending the night .. You cld always count on you to have the best snack cake stash for all us kids in your closet.. Going to church with you as a little girl was always a blessing. You always treated each and everyone of us as your own . As everyone got older and families grew bigger I still kept contact you had a listening ear with no judgement anytime .. You wld give your honest opinion on any situation. I will miss our calls all the time and texting pics to you as well to keep you updated on my lil family. *Dear sis,
I know you fought the long hard fight for as long as you couldn't, and you became tired and was ready and you had no fight left in you. That's ok we understand that your time here on earth was ending but we find comfort in knowing that your pain and suffering here is done and your enjoying your heavenly body now filled with nothing but peace at last!! I'll miss you for as long as I live and I can't thank you enough for being my second momma and shaping me into the woman I am today. You was an angel on earth with a heart as big as the universe ! You gave and gave to so many people throughout your life , you were there for all your huge family and friends and you were a light on a dark day . I know it's a rejoicing moment for you now !! You are with our lord Jesus now and all our loved ones and I'm sure they are all so happy to have you join them . Please give them love and hugs from all of us down here. I am thankful and blessed that you were my big sister and that I have so many great memories of you to cherish and get me through the bad days . Till we gather again sister. My love for you will always be I'm my heart.your sister, Tomella*

Although I don't remember having any classes with Debbie, I remember her gentle spirit, and it was a blessing being in her presence.
