“ We cannot believe Dad has passed on, especially now since he was doing so well lately. He was getting really adjusted at Provision Living and seemed so happy, joking with everyone. I never expected the heart attacks. I know he is at peace and with Mom & Matt now. We love you and will miss you so much.

“ Words alone cannot express my feelings or love I had or have for my father. Pa was the cornerstone of my foundation. He was my mentor, teacher and my friend. A truly honest and sensitive man, he would give you the shirt off his back. I have many memories of my father as do my siblings. Most of those memories are good memories. He raised his kids to be the very best Hises they could be. Because of his honesty and fairness he had a genuine likeness to him. While our hearts are heavy with sorrow, we will and should grieve. I know God will give us the strength to bear our sorrows. Let us rejoice and celebrate the good things about his life on earth. Love you Pa, forever.

“ My deepest sympathy to all. My father was a customer of "Bob & Del's" for years and I have fond memories of Mr. Hise (Delbert) as my dad would call him. A very generous and warm man who will be deeply missed by all who were lucky to know him. Wishing you wonderful memories to ease your pain.
