“ Love and sympathy to all of Denny's loved ones. I was eight years old when my cousin "Denny" was born, and I remember how happy we all were to welcome him into the Martin family. He was so special. Our families lived so far apart I didn't get to see him too often, but it was always a special time when we did get together with Aunt Faye, Uncle Dick, Denny and later Diane. I will remember him fondly, always. Sincerely, Richard and Sue (Martin) Hurst.
