“ There is no way to say how much we will all miss you, Aunt Dolores. I remember growing up with you and Tony & Marie, all of our weekends at Grandma DeAngelo's, all of the Christmases and Thanksgiving dinners, all of the times you held and encouraged me with Chelle and Sammy, even when Chelle was being a little "girl" and Sammy peed in the recliner! You held me when i cried, you and Uncle Ernie laughed with me when we shared funny stories. "Jessie"! With your passing another generation of DeAngelo's have made their way home to Heaven. I love you and thank you because you are part of who I am today.

To all of the DeAngelo family remaining, I know we share our deepest sorrows at this time, but knowing that Aunt Dolores is finally at peace is our greatest comfort.

All of our love and prayers, D'An & Wally Perjensky
