“ Mr. Ornellas was my 6th grade teacher in Hartford, Illinois in 1964-65, which must have been his first teaching job. When I reflect upon those teachers who stood out, he's one of them. My sincerest condolences.

“ I am a 1st cousin on his mother’s side. We had many good memories growing up. And as teenagers we hung out together often, because he and my brother Roger were the same age. As we grew up and married time and distance separated us. Wish I could attend.
Condolences to his children. May God comfort you during this sad time.

“ Donny was my 1st cousin, but we grew up more like brothers sharing so many adventures they can't be all recalled. Some of our most valued times were spent on our grandparents farm by Haganan, Illinois where we fished the creek and ponds and hunted the fields. His first love wasn't a girl. It was a shiny, black '50 Chevy coupe that he polished so much he rubbed the paint down to the primer. His voice that seemed to come from a deep hole will live in the collected memories of all who knew and loved him. Unique doesn't quite describe Donny, but it comes close. Fred Richardson
