“ Dot was such a kind lady. My in-laws lived next door to her in Glazebrook in Godfrey and I would always stare at her beautiful home and day dream about it. When she and Gant decided to move my husband and I eventually were able to buy it. She put the price to where we could afford it because she was pleased to know the family that was going to live and love her home. 32 years later we are still there and still live it and I think of her often. What a wonderful long life she has had! Becky and Randy Wilson.
