She is survived by her sons John Charles Helm of Ft. Myers, FL, Robert William Reid of Grand Haven, MI, two granddaughters Debbie Brynteson, Westminster, CO, Traci Helm-Woods of Alton, four great grandchildren Nicole, Jonathan, Ethan, and Emily and two great great-grandchildren Taylor and Elisabeth. “ I was very sad to recently hear of Dorothy's passing. Growing up she was like a 2nd mom. I'll always remember her as a grand lady that made a lasting impression on my life. Love ya Ma, Rick Davis

“ I was deeply saddened to learn of Dorothy's passing. Mrs. Reid was a warm, loving woman with a wonderful sense of humor. I can still hear her laughter. She carried herself with great dignity that may have been exceeded only by her respect for others. She graciously allowed me to share dinners and be a part of her home on numerous occasions providing me opportunities to learn how nutritious meals were presented and how family conversations should be conducted. She taught me many valuable life lessons for which I am thankful. May Bob, John and all family members find comfort in celebrating a life well lived.

“ Although it has been over twenty years since I last saw her, I will never forget Aunt Dorothy growing up and running around Norman's Landing.

“ My mother wrote back and forth with Mrs. Reid for many, many years, as Mrs. Reid was her step-mother. She always enjoyed hearing from Mrs. Reid and looked forward to greeting cards at birthdays and Christmas/New Years. John, if you read this, Belva would like to know how to contact you so she can give her sympathy and remembrance personally. Thank you,

“ JOHN,
Your dad was my grandfather's brother. Ed Helm. I had talked to Dorothy over the years and lost track of her when she moved to Florida. She did call me when our Aunt Ethel died and when my mom died.
Would love to meet you. I have pictures of your dads brothers.
Please call if you come to Illinois. 618-466 7664--Neeta McClintock

“ Grandmother, whom I adored ever so much
No longer here on earth, but in the heavens above
Oh how I'll miss your smile and your laughter so big and full of life.
Now you sore in the sky you're an angel so high
You are now with our maker; tell me what is he like?
Are your day's filled with song and praise,
do you sway to the music that angel harps play?
Grandmother, whom I adored ever so much
How you will be missed, but never forgotten
I shall remember your scent, your voice and your every feature.
After all you were one of my teachers
You've taught me so much and so many life lessons
Grandmother, whom I adored ever so much
Rest now; ever so peaceful in the heavens above
I Love you Gram!
