“ *Johnny and family,
What a shock to hear of your sweet wife's death. She died on my wonderful Dad's birthday. I have fond memories of her. I remember when you lived on 9th Street. Keep her sweet spirit alive. I embrace you with love and warmth from Alabama.*

Jane Edelen Bracht - June 07, 2014 at 12:00 AM

“ I am still in shock. Words cannot express my sorrow that you were taken so young. However, I know God has a greater plan that we cannot at times understand. This past week memories have been flooding back, and I have been reliving all the great times I had with Bea. There was no one funnier, no one friendlier, and no one that you would rather spend time with than Bea.

“ *John and Bess and all,
Sending our kindest thoughts to all of you during this difficult time.
Wishing you all the best and sorry we could not be there.
Hope to see you all soon,
Preston Lou Dixon and family.*

“ Bea, you are among the angels now, sharing your light and laughter as you were meant to. May you have the peace and serenity you've earned. This world was a better place with you in it. Heaven is lucky now....
