“ Liz was a neighbor and dear friend of my family for decades. She was a loving and devoted wife, mother, grandmother, and friend to many. She was proud of her family, especially her children and grandchildren and all their accomplishments. And Liz loved each dog she brought into her home passionately!

We shared lots of laughter and sometimes tears but mostly enjoyed memories of earlier days when Larry filled the neighborhood with aromas of his famous barbecues and the children splashed in the pool. Fun times. I will miss them and her.

Farewell Dear Liz and thank you for being my friend.

Peace and comfort to family and friends.
