“ She was my grandmother. I knew her when I was a very young child. She would bring me chocolate covered cherries when she would visit :) My prayers are with my mother, Catherine and my Uncle Roger, and peace to all who knew her!

“ Roger,Larry, Bob and Catherine. I am so sorry to hear of Aunt June's death. I will always remember the great times we had as kids when Uncle Elmer, Aunt June and you kids would come to our farm and we would have a lot of fun. Wish we could all get together and pretend that we were kids again out on our farm especially on the 4th of July. Keep all the great memories of your mother close to your heart and she will be with you forever. Love, Marie

“ A love for your mother is never ending and will miss her. However I am upset because my brother failed to mention she was first married to my father, Elmer Jennings who died in 1961. May they both rest in peace!
