Just wanted to let you know that you all are in our thoughts and prayers.

“ Dear Keri,

If this message reaches you, I used to work with you at the bank some years ago. Your family has been in my thoughts every day and will be for a very long time. From one mom to another, please know that you are strong enough to make it through this. The day you became a mom you were given the strength to handle anything in life. You made Ellee Grace a beautiful person because you are a beautiful person, just like your two boys. Let the endless joy of your wonderful children help you and Chris through this time. Their resilience is the light that will guide you and fill your heart once again.

*Best wishes always from my heart,
Sam Dale and family*
