“ I will never forget playing at your house and in your yard on Judson when Tricia, Tara, Greggie, and I were small kids- and the kindness and love you showed me like I was one of your own grandkids. You made me laugh so hard and treated me like family. Everyone envied the Bock kids for having the coolest grandpa around! I know you're in pure bliss in Our Father's kingdom with more of your loved ones- no more pain and sickness for eternity. I am praying for all of your family who are missing you like crazy until you meet again....
