“ Hello Barb,

We are sorry to hear of Fred's passing and sincerely wish you and your family strength and peace through this difficult time. I hope memories of your love and friendship are treasures you will carry with you always. You're in our prayers.

Barb, I have thought of you so often over the years, and regretted that we lost touch. I treasure the memories I have of our friendship of so many years ago. You will always be in my heart, and I feel we could pick up right where we left off. You were a great friend I would love to be in touch with again.

With deep sympathy,

Alpha and Mike Smith
