“ Gary. You meant so much to me. You were the very first boyfriend for my Taydobug. I remember the first time I met you I had two tests for you. One, to shake your hand and see if you had a firm or wimpy handshake...you passed! Second was did you have a sense of humor and could my daughter make you laugh. I made Taylor do her skit from “Silence I’d the Lambs”. Tay stood in front of the fridge putting two thin slices of lunch meat on her face....when she turned around to you she said the infamous line “Hello Clarise its very nice to see you again”! I’ll never forget the look on your face. Your mouth dropped open and eyes got wide and you just looked at her and busted out laughing but wondering “what did I get myself into”. We laughed so hard. That’s one memory I’ll never forgot. I love you kiddo.

“ There are so many things that I want to say to you but i don't know how...you were a huge part of my life for many reasons. Memories that we share, no one will ever be able to relate to or understand...I don't need to go into detail because you already know. Thank you for all of the lessons that you taught me...for all of the tears you have wiped away from my eyes, for all of the laughs you have given me, for all of the love that we shared. Rest in Peace.
