“ One of the sweetest men I've ever known. He was a tinkerer, with a "honey do list". I'll never forget when I was little, when you showed me your detached thumb trick, it scared the poopoo out of me. I loved your quiet sense of humor and I most of all love how much you loved your family. You will be missed.

“*Papaw, I have so many beautiful memories to hold onto until the day we meet again. I am forever grateful for the love and joy you brought to my life. Your lovely wife and beautiful daughter are in good hands with us, so fly high with BaeLo and keep that order of cottage cheese and peaches waiting for me. All my love,

We always kidded George and Cis that we went on their honeymoon with them. Aunt Jessie's family, along w/ our family, went to Brandon for some times in the mountains, and George and Cis had just gotten married. So technically, I guess we did honeymoon with them!

And I was always remember that George loved Willie Nelson, and he got my Dad into his music. And his quiet, sweet ways. George was a jewel that God gave to this family, and I will love him forever. <3
