“ (Sandra Grills daughter)

Aunt Gerri was always so very good and sweet to me. I pray for your family as you go through this but I know you all have God's arms around you at this moment and that your mom is in heaven with Uncle Roy and many other loved ones rejoicing and singing praises as our tears flow for the person we miss.

Mom didn't remember a lot in her final times but she did remember Aunt Gerri and was happy that they got to spend the time together that they did at Day Care. (Of course she always called it her work thinking she was going there to take care of those she spent time with since she retired from St. Anthonys) May God bless you all and I send prayers and heartfelt love.
