“ My name is David Best Ford was my mother Irene’s brother.Last time I saw him was in 2001 June at my mothers funeral (His sisters)I wanted to try to visit him.But I myself had to have major surgery and wasn’t able to make the trip.I talked to him when his sister Virginia died and a few times afterwards.I referred to myself as his clone, we could have pasted for twins .Only he being the elder by 9 years.I have numerous memories of him that goes back to when I wasn’t much more than an infant .I’ll always remember him nor will I ever forget him.May you rest in eternal peace, we will meet again as hopefully we both walk through the gates of heaven.
