“ I met Helen back in 1971. She was a special kind of lady, who almost always spoke what was on her mind. She and I corresponded and kept in touch over the years especially the last 12 years. I spoke with her often while she was living in Tennessee. Helen spoke many times of her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren often and although I only know and have met some of you, I can say all of you were special to her. I am glad she returned to Illinois before she passed and had the opportunity to see her family. Helen believed in Jesus and that when she died she would be in a better place; I believe that too. I loved Helen and am proud to have had her love me and call me friend. My condolences to her family for their loss.
