I was Neil's Secretary at Advance Mortgage Corporation in Southfield MI during the late 70's and early 80's. After all of these years, I still often say, he was the best boss I ever had. He never lost his temper with anyone and was a kind, fair and mannerly gentleman. I remember throwing him a farewell luncheon when he decided to take the job with Citibank in St Louis. We were all very sorry to see him leave. We kept in touch for years after by exchanging notes on Christmas cards. My sympathy to his large family.
