“ I have fond memories of Irene, especially during my adolescence and as a member of the Unitarian Church and the Anna D's. It eluded me at the time but later came as no surprise that she was a social worker. Irene was a dear friend of my late mother. My condolences to her family.

“ The Staff members and friends of Irene's at Two Rivers National Wildlife Refuge are grateful and fortunate to have known Irene. She was a long time supporter of the Refuge, and a dedicated Volunteer. Irene's wit and birding expertise will not be forgotten.

“ I've known Irene for about 25 years through the Anna D's; I remember her warm smile. She was a very intelligent but unassuming person. She'll be missed a lot by her friends.

“ Irene's love of birds and birding, her infectious laugh and humor, her loyalty toward anything Norwegian are among the joys of having known her. Irene's courage in dealing with illness was awesome. We treasure her friendship and mourn her loss.

“ Irene will be greatly missed by her many friends. She was an avid "birder" and defender of all creatures "great and small." The First Unitarian Church of Alton will especially her.

“ I want to thank Irene for her intellect, her integrity, her hearty laugh, and her hearty meals. I thank her and Harry for sharing their home, ideas, interests, and their horses (Chester & Joe). I think of you both fondly and with a smile.

“ I have so many fond memories of spending time with Anne and her Aunt Irene. Walking on her persian rug so it wouldn't look "new", going to my very 1st ballet, the raspberry soap in the bathroom, the many overnights. What a wonderful time!

“ My memories of Irene include consulting her on many occasions regarding questions about birding; talking with her at church services at First Unitarian Church of Alton, where she was a longtime active member; her active interest as secretary of the Anna D's, a women's alliance of the church; and long discussions with her when she contracted kidney cancer near the same time as my mother. I will truly miss the time we were able to spend together.
