“ My friend Jackie was fearless. There wasn't anything he wasn't willing to do, regardless of what other people thought. Running for Mayor of Alton, going to NASA space camp, (Star Trek was his favorite), and touring Washington DC. He would call out injustice when he saw it, even getting the news involved if necessary He graduated college with an Associate degree, had an apartment and was able to buy a brand new car for himself. He was always my 1st Christmas card and never failed to call me to give me the latest scoop.

Fly high amongst the stars. You and your resilience has left an undeniable mark on my heart. I will always remember and miss my friend Jackie ❤️
