“ Jim and I were childhood buddies, and our friendship continued throughout our lives. I remember when Jim lived on North Street, the same as our friend Ken Best. It was the day that Jim got his leg braces removed, and he was at the top of the hill yelling at Ken and me at the bottom of the hill. the sun was behind Jim, and he was raising his braces over his head, shouting: "Look at me! Look at this!"

That image is in my mind forever.

He was always a true and loyal friend.

“ I had so many memories in my brief 9 years in Alton with Jim. His Mobil hat, Chicago trips, politics, a few VO and waters, holidays, Cardinal games, breakfast-lunch-dinner-late nights at the Ranch with the guys and on and on. Jim was one of my favorite people of all time. I'm truly sorry I did not have a chance to say goodbye. Much love to Carol and the family.
