“ My deepest condolences to the Halloway family on the loss of your loved one. I didn't know James, but was sorry to hear of his passing. And may the Father of tender mercies and God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulations (2 Corinthians 1:3-4) continue to comfort and strenghten you through this very difficult time.

“ Alice -

My deepest sympathy and prayers go out to you and Jim's family.

I remember Jim when he was the Commander of the American Legion in Bunker Hill during my active square dance years. He was always willing to help and even would lend an ear if you needed someone just to listen. He reached out to everyone and would try to spread cheer and happiness when he thought it was needed. He'll truly be missed not only by you and his family but anyone who had the chance to know him.

(PS - I still can remember those awful needles you would put in my arm. Still don't like them but will tolerate one when necessary.)

Take care.
