“ When a friend of yours called to let me know of your passing this last Sunday the 15th. I didn't, I couldn't, I wouldn't believe him. I said I just talked to her on Friday. I remember the night we met. It was New Years Eve 2012. I looked up and saw pink,green,purple and blue hair and a smile that could melt the strongest of men. The only thing I could even think to say to her was. Would you like to work with me cleaning swimming pools. And you said sure I'd love to. Well six months past and after saying to myself. It's whats inside the person that counts, not what they look like on the outside. Everybody thought I'd lost my marbles thinking to hire a girl with pink,green,purple and blue hair and a few piercings to boot. I saw a girl with a big heart and a loving soul that wanted to be noticed. The first day she started. I knew I made the right choice. And Janele turned out to being my very best helper. In the short time you became a great asset to the company, and a close friend to me. One I will miss being able to enjoy all our conversations together. And to her Uncle, Aunt, Brother and boyfriend. I'm sure sorry for your lose. There was no one like her.

“ Remembering you 1st as a young girl when Mike, John, you and me went to the zoo. Then when you helped me clean Uncle Cork's house. I was so glad you did the worst of the bathroom. My prayers are with your brother, uncle, and cousins.
