“ May you be comforted by each other, family and friends, Janet, Joan, Chris, and Patty, as you share memories of your mom. Your spouses and your children have their own memories. There will be tears and laughter as you mourn your loss. Your parents are always in your hearts. May your mom receive her heavenly reward as she meets Jesus and the Blessed Mother Mary face to face. May her soul and the souls of all the faithful departed live in God's eternal light.

“ Joan, Although I have only met your mother, I know that she was a kind, loving person because I have seen those very traits in you. I hope she is already "racking up" Masterpoints at the Bridge tables in heaven! May all the fondest memories of your Mom help soothe the grief and pain of your loss. Fondly, Sandy and Don Hopper
