“ To the family of Miss Joanne I worked with Joanne at Tony's in Alton back in the 70s. What a great time we all had down there. She sure showed me the ropes down there how to make good money lol. And I just adored her husband John. John used to always say I was his little sister so this is how I know your family and how much I admire your family. The only other one I ever really got to know was Nicki when she was little and I have seen her a few times during the year with her grandma. You all have my deepest sympathy and a lot of prayers. God bless all of you we all lost a really good lady.

“ My thoughts are with you all. I still use every year the Christmas tree skirt that she made for me over 40 yrs ago. You were all so blessed to call her mom and grandma. Love to you all. Connie Isham.
