“ We were sorry to read of John's passing. He befriended our family while living at Burt's Shelter Care in Alton, and we kept up with or heard from him through moves to Bunker Hill, the Madison County facility, and to Jerseyville. We lost track of him after that and wondered about him over the last couple of years when we didn't receive Christmas greetings or a call near his birthday (our son's birthday is June 20th and John always remembered it being near his). I am sorry we were unable to attend his funeral services. We have photos of him holding our youngest daughter (17 y.) as an infant after sharing a meal in our home. Our condolences to you and your family.
