“ SORRY JOYCE I DID NOT KNOW I WAS ON VACATION SORRY FOR YOU LOST

ALBERTO SAN JAUN - November 22, 2012 at 12:00 AM

“ As one can imagine, this is never an easy time. I'll miss you Daddy. Thank you to all the friends and family that have been supportive through all this. Mom, I love you. I'm only a phone call away. To Dad's brothers, my wonderful Uncles, he loved you all greatly also. Anyone that knew Dad knows what a great man he was. Just remember, he's watching us from Heaven now, with those who have gone before him.

“ Joyce, Tara and Jimmy. Our sympathy goes out to you. John was a loving generous person and will truly be missed. I wished I got to spend more time with him, I didn't get a chance to thank him for making the trip back here so our family could be together it was the ultimate sacrifice, and I am not surprised by that because John was a man who always put family first. I'm sure if John had a plan, it would work out just as it did being surrounded by family and friends and being in the place he always called home. I hope the family will find comfort knowing he is in peace and will suffer no more. God Bless, you are all in my prayers.

“ It's been a joy getting to hear from John again, seeing his postings on the St. Pat's Alumni Facebook site this past year. Seeing several of the pix John posted there added to So Many memories we as his classmates shared day after day, from Kindergarten through 8th grade.

John's memory in my mind, even before our class Facebook site, registered how kind and gentle he daily was to all of us. Seeing his recent posted notes, plus his pix only validated again, how true my memory was of him.

Truly, he was an adorable, loving soul. Heartfelt condolences unto all those most dear to him.

You're in our prayers,

Bob and Linda Taylor-Domine

“ To Aunt Joyce, Tara, Jimmy, and the rest of the family: I am sorry for your loss, to lose someone before their time is tragic, but I am a firm believer in the saying, "It's not how you die, but how you've lived." Uncle John always seemed so jolly to me as a kid. Laughter came easy to him, and he always made other people laugh too. He definitely loved you guys very much. My thoughts are with you in this difficult time.

Sincerely,

Stacey Lindley

“ My thought and prayers go out to John's family and friends. I started a web site about a year ago trying to find people that went thru St. Patricks grade school so I had recently gotten in touch with him last year. I feel blessed to have known John. He was such a great friend to everyone. The John I remember never had a bad thing to say about anyone. I will miss his posts on the web page and most of all will miss one of my St.Pat's family.Rest in peace, John.
